

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. 1 Sir De Lacy Evans served in India in 1807, 8, 9, and 10. Portugal, Spain, and France in 1812, 13, and 14. America, part of 1814-15. Belgium and France in 1815, 16, 17, and 18. In Spain in 1823, 24, and 27. Present during the operations against Amoor Khan and the Pindarries, capture of the Mauritius, part of the retreat from Burgos, action on the Hermand (wounded), battle of Vittoria, investment of Pampeluna, battle of the Pyrenees, investment of Bayona (shot), actions of Vic Bigorre and Tarbes, battle of Toulouse (horse shot), battle of Rastenburg (two horses shot), capture of Washington, attack on Baltimore, operations before New Orleans (boarding and capture of American Flotilla)—action 28th Dec. wounded severely—unsuccessful assault, Jan. (wounded severely), battle of Quatre Bras, retreat of 17th of Jan. Waterloo (horse shot and one embred), investment and capitulation of Paris. Continued on Staff of Allied Army of Occupation in France. Accepted under an allied Power (1833) command of an auxiliary British and Spanish corps of army by sanction and desire of the English Government, and by order of the King in Council. Acted, while employed, in conjunction with the British forces (under Lord J. Hay), and through mediation of British authorities—raising investments of San Sebastian and Bilbao, action of Arlaban, capture of port and castle of Passages. Defeated the enemy in general actions on the 6th of May, 8th of June, 1st of October (wounded) 1838, also 10th and 18th of March 1837. Attacked near Hernani, 18th March, by the Div. of the Carlist army, 16,000 strong (about double the allied force), and obliged to retreat about one mile, but with a less loss in killed and wounded (600) than that of the enemy. Resumed the offensive the following month—capture of Hernani by escalade, 14th May—of Oyarzun, 18th May—of Yrua, by storm 17th May—of Penabazua by capitulation, 18th May. These, and other minor affairs, were for the most part, severely contested, and cost (including those of the enemy) above ten thousand killed and wounded. Excepting occasionally two or three stragglers, generally without arms, the Legion never lost (under his command) prisoners, artillery, or equipage, though uterly contrary statements repeatedly appeared at the time—while he took from the enemy 100 officers, 1000 men, thirty pieces of cannon, several entrenched positions, fortified towns and posts, with an extensive and most important strategical tract of the insurgent territory, including their main line of retreat, communication and supply. Timesforth "The frontier was effectually closed against the entrance of resources to the Carlists, except by the small mountain passes, which are only accessible to foot passengers, or mules lightly laden"—(British Commissioners' Dispatch, Parliamentary Paper)—and thus did this auxiliary corps decisively contribute to the successful termination of the war. He holds the rank of Lieut. General in the national army of Spain, by license of a British royal warrant, also, honoured by Her Majesty for their services with the Cross of Commander of the Bath, and by the government of Spain with the Grand Crosses of St. Ferdinand and Charles III. Facings Green.—Agents, Messrs. Barron & Smith.—Irish Agents, Sir E. R. Borough, Bt., 1st Batt. returned from India, August 1863. Depot, Cork.
2nd Batt. embarked for the Mauritius, 12 March 63. Depot, Cork.

1 Lieut. General Taylor proceeded in 1811 to join the 2nd Dragoons in the East Indies, where he served until their return to Europe and disembarkment, 25th October 1818. He was in the field in 1813 and 14, and during the whole of the Maratha war in 1817, 18, and 19; the published official records show that his conduct was conspicuous in the Belgaum cavalry actions of Bucknill and of Nagnure, and of Ashin 26th Feb. 1816, when he incurred, as Brigade Major, the responsibility of countermanding the retreat and ordering measures which terminated in the entire defeat of the French, the death of the gallant Gault, and the rescue of the Rajah of Satarah, the most influential events in terminating the war. At the siege of Capaul-droing, he commanded a battery at the storm (10th May 1817), he blew upon the first gun a gallopier gun of the 2nd Dragoons, and leading the Forlorn Hope, he stormed in succession the five distinct circles of fortifications, every man and officer of his party being either killed or wounded; he received at the summit of that strong hill Fort, at the moment of success in its capture, a shot through his leg and body that killed the Grenadier who was his. The Governor General of India specially recommended him to favourable consideration for his services in India. In 1823 and 24 he was employed in the Cape Cavalry against the Caffres. In Jan. 1821 he was relieved from a bullet which had been in his body since 1819. In Aug. 1824 his life was imperilled from a surgical operation consequent upon the rupture of a bone driven into him by a shot. In Nov. 1824 he was relieved from a piece of bone broken in his body by a shot. From April 1834 to Dec. 1837 he was a Colonel on the Staff at the Cape of Good Hope, where as a Brigadier he was a "period of peculiar difficulty and immediately threatened war" he commanded a large force in Kaffraria. From April 1838 to April 1841 he was Commander of the Forces and Lieut. Governor of Jamaica and its Dependencies. In 1837 he was sent to England from Malta to establish discipline in a corps that had bred at and nearly killed their Adjutant, their insubordination sustained by a turbulent mob at a period of popular excitement. He took command and the borbles shot him three times on the public parade they fired into his windows and shot through the chest a ball which stood behind him. Without calling in other troops he suppressed the mutiny, and alone he overcame the fury of the mob. The approbation of his Major General was submitted by his Lt. General to the Home Guards, and elevated through the Adjutant General the Sovereign's record that "the decided and necessary measures to which he had resorted had effectively repressed the spirit that prevailed when he assumed the command."

2 Colonel Ross commanded a detached force on the Nepaul frontier in 1839, drove the rebels from the plains of Tinnah where there was a large Bazar, and on 21st day attacked them in the Jung of Poonah, the whole rebel army in consequence retired to Nahan, where they were cut up by Sir R. Kelly—for general services on the frontier was highly complimented by the Commander in Chief and Sir R. Kelly Medal.

13 Captain Crawford served with the 7th Highlanders at the siege and fall of Sebastopol from July 1855, Medal and Clasp, and Turkish Medal. Also in the Indian campaign of 1858-59 including the siege and capture of Lucknow (Medal and Clasp).

16 Captain Halloway served in the 34th Regt. in the Indian campaign of 1857-58 and was present at the storm and capture of Meeranpore, siege and capture of Lucknow, and affairs at Hazrat and Regur. Medal with Clasp.

17 Captain Chads served with the 24th Regt. in the campaign in Affghanistan in 1856, including the actions of Bagmati and Nigena, relief of Mardak-hai, action in the Jujura, assault and capture of Bavelly, attack and bombardment of Shahjehangere, defeat of the rebels and relief of the garrison, capture of the fort of Bunnal, pursuit of the enemy to the left bank of the Goumtee, and destruction of the Fort of M. Bander, all in the same campaign in 1856, including the action at Bannalpoore.

18 Quarter Master Hawkins served the Punjab campaign of 1848-49, Medal. 19 Lieut. of Bannalpoore, Cawnpore, and Gwalior (Medal and Clasp).

[Returned from Gibraltar, 25 August 1857. Embarked for Canada, 14 June 61.]

Sir James Shaw Kennedy served with the 43rd Light Infantry at the siege of Copenhagen and battle of Kioge in 1807. Was with the Corps of Sir David Baird from Corunna to Sahagun, and in the retreat under Sir John Moore. In 1809 the Light Division in the march from Lisbon to Talavera, where he became Adjutant of the 43rd. Served as Aide-de-camp to General Robert Craufurd during 1809 and 1810, and was present in the numerous affairs that took place between the Duke of Wellington and Aqueda, and severely wounded at the action of Almeida. Served at the siege of Ciudad Rodrigo, and at the assault on Fort of the place. Stood with General Craufurd when, in the assault, he placed himself on the crest of the glacis, and he fell mortally wounded. Was the bearer of the Duke of Wellington's summons to the Governor demanding the surrender of the place. Served with the 43rd at the siege and storming of Badajoz, during the investment of the forts of the place, the advance and retreat from that place to the Douro, the action of Salamanca, and the investment of the city and occupation of Madrid. Served as Aide-de-Camp to General Baron Alton on the retreat from Madrid to Salamanca, and in the affairs that took place between Salamanca and Rodrigo. Served as the only officer of the Quarter-Master-General's Department to the 3rd Division of the Army, in the actions of Quatre Bras and Waterloo. Reconnoitred for the march of the Division on the 17th of June from Piermont and the Ligny Road, crossing the Dyle at Ways, a line of march separate from the rest of the Army, and a movement of great delicacy, being performed in open day in presence of Napoleon's advance. On the 18th of June was allowed, in presence of the Duke of Wellington, to form the Division in a line of battle new and unusual, that of oblongs in exchequer, to meet the formidable masses of Cavalry seen forming in front, and in this formation the Division resisted repeatedly, with perfect success, attacks of Cavalry and Artillery probably more formidable as any known in military history. On the 18th was struck on the side and disabled for some time; and had one arm killed and one wounded. Commanded at Calais, during the three years of the Army of Occupation, the establishment of the line there to keep up the communication between the Army and England. Served nine years as Assistant Adjutant-General at Manchester, during periods of disturbance, and generally in command. Organized the Constabulary Force of the County. After attaining the rank of Major General, was named by the Duke of Wellington to several very important commands. Has received the War Medal with three Clasps.

Madras Staff Corps, War Services.

Captain Luice Smith was actively employed during the late rebellion in India. In Dec. 1857 with a party of 50 troopers entered Sanakhan hills, and surprised the main body of the insurgents—500 matchlock men—and captured their leader, the chief of Sanakhan, on whose head a price had been fixed. On the night of the 18th Jan. 1858, a portion of the troops sent at Raepore mutinied, murdered the Serjeant Major, and seized the post guns. The only English officers present were Smith and Rybat, and the nearest trustworthy force was 180 miles distant, yet before the morning dawned these two had suppressed the mutiny, and seized all the known mutineers, who in due time were hanged in the presence of their des. From March till the end of June he commanded a detachment of troops against the rebels in the Sumbulpore district with whom he had various affairs. For his services rendered in 1857-58 he received the thanks of the Governor General in Council, and the expression of Her Majesty's gracious approval. In Oct. and Nov. 1860 he was employed against the rebels in the Nalgur hills, and drove them from all their defences, completely dispersing the band.

Captain F. M. Raynsford served in the Indian Mutiny Campaign in 1857-58 as Assistant Field Engineer, including the battle of Lucknow by Lord Clyde, battle of Cawnpore 6th Dec. 1857, action of Khudagunge, the enemy's attack on the Alum-bagh 26th Feb. 58, throughout the siege of Lucknow, passage of the Goomtee at Sultanpore (mentioned in dispatches), and several minor affairs (Medal with two Clasps).

Major Ranken served with the 35th Madras N. I. throughout the second Burmese war, and was present at the operations in the capture of Rangoon in April, and capture of Prome in Oct. 1852 (Medal with Clasp). Served in Central India in 1859 as Senior Field Division (Medal).

Colonel Wyndham served in the Coorg war in 1834. Expedition to China in 1842, including the capture of Woosung, Ningbo, and Chinkiangfoo (Medal). Engaged in several campaigns in the Hyderabad country from 1844 to 1849. Rohilla War in 1855. Whilst commanding a column of the Hyderabad contingent repelled a night attack of about 12,000 men of the Rajah of Shorapore before that place, engaged in skirmishes the following day, and present at the capture of Shorapore on 9th Feb. 1853. Has received Medals for China and India.

Major Willoughby Osborne served throughout the Indian Mutiny Campaigns of 1857-59. Was engaged in nine affairs in June and Dec., 1857 (wounded). Commanded in the operations against the 3 gun fort of Kunchundpore and present at its capture on 7th Dec.; Joorah, on 17th Dec.; fortified town of Myhere, on 29th Dec.; the 22 gun fort of Myhere, on 3rd Dec.; Jokehale, on 19th Jan.; Kunwarrah 3 gun fort, on 21st Jan.; Bigiragoogurh 13 gun fort, on 24th Jan. (wounded); Jimechut, on 22nd May. Also present at the action of Kurereah, on 1st Jan., 1859 (wounded), and at Kentee on 5th Dec. 1859 (CB). Honorary Aide de Camp to the Viceroy of India, Medal with Clasp for Central India).

Captain G. H. Meham served as one of the original garrison of Lucknow during the entire defence from 30th June to Nov. 1857. Was attached to and frequently commanded one of the most exposed posts in the line of intrenchments, which ultimately totally destroyed by the explosion of one of the enemy's mines, when the entire garrison was blown up and the exception of himself and two others, destroyed—twice mentioned in despatches for distinguished conduct and accompanying parties, and received the thanks of the Governor General in Council. On the withdrawal of the garrison, joined the 5th Fusiliers and served throughout the occupation of the Alumbagh under Outram; was present at the various attacks of the enemy and received a contusion. Joined Hodson's Horse at the commencement of the operations before Lucknow by Lord Clyde, was present at its capture and pursuit of the enemy; also present at the action of Nawaubgunge and was severely wounded and charger shot (mentioned in despatches). Served throughout the campaign of 1848 in Oude and was frequently engaged in skirmishes and encounters with the enemy. Commanded the 3rd Regt. of Hodson's Horse during the campaign in the Nepal frontier in 1859, and attacked the remnant of the Nusseerabad Brigade in a high jungle, killing a large number and capturing the colors of the 30th Bengal Native Infantry (Medal with two Clasps, and a year's service for Lucknow).
